Caring and Achieving

28th November 2023

Dear Parents/Carers,

As we approach Christmas and the end of the autumn term, school is becoming a hive of festive fun and a very busy place to be! Please check the list of key dates below to ensure that you have all of the dates relevant to your child in your diary.

Staffing Update

I would like to inform you that at the end of the autumn term, Miss Broad will sadly be leaving All Saints' and relocating to Devon. Unfortunately, Miss Broad is also now unable to be in school for the remainder of this term and will be unable to say her goodbyes to the school community as she had wished.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank Miss Broad for her hard work and dedication to the school over the last six years. I'm sure that you will all join me in wishing her the best of luck with her new life in Devon.

As we say goodbye to Miss Broad, I am however delighted to welcome Mrs Emily Brown back to All Saints' as newly appointed Chestnut Class teacher from January 2024. Fortunately, Mrs Brown is able to start her position early, and will be teaching Chestnut class in the mornings for the remainder of this term. Mrs Brown will then commence teaching full time from the start of the spring term as planned.

Readathon

Just a reminder that this is the last week of our sponsored read. The children have until this Friday to try to read three books and raise money for new books for the school library. Please remember all children that complete the three book challenge will attend a book café where they can invite a family member to come into school and share their favourite book during the afternoon of Monday 11th December.

Late Signing In

If your child arrives to school late after the orchard gate has been shut, you must come into the school office to sign them in to the building. The children must not be simply dropped off at the front gate as this is a safeguarding concern.

Loud Hall Christmas Concert

The children that have music lessons from Loud Hall Music are invited to take part in a Christmas concert at 3.30pm on Monday 18th December. Parents and carers are invited to attend and will be issued with two tickets per performer. Children wishing to watch their siblings will need one of the
